DIED AT NEIGHBOR'S.

End Came Suddenly For Charles W. Lee, of North Coventry.

Charles W. Lee died suddenly Wednesday evening at the home of a neighbor in North Coventry. Medical Examiner W. L. Higgins of Coventry examined the body. Death was caused by heart failure. Mr. Lee was born in Vernon in 1810, the son of Charles and Mary French Lee. He had been a farmer most of his life. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Newell Hill of North Coventry and a son of Chas. W. Lee, Jr. of New Britain.

John Quinlan.

The body of John Quinlan, who died at his home in Providence, Monday, arrived in this city Thursday morning and was taken in charge by a local undertaker. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Clara Planning Dance.

The commercial class of the high school held a meeting in the school Thursday afternoon and voted to hold a dance. A committee consisting of Miss Mae Cheney, chairman, T. Kennedy, Mr. Quade, S. Feeley and E. Baker, was appointed to make the necessary arrangements for the affair. It was undecided as to whether to hold the dance in the town hall or the gymnasium of the school.

To Start Forming Home Guard.

The recruiting of the Home Guard for the city of Willimantic will be taken care of by Mayor Daniel P. Dunn. The military census of the city has been completed and the application blanks have not arrived in town but they are expected most any time. Mayor Dunn stated Thursday afternoon that a mass meeting would be held in regard to forming the guard in the town hall on Friday. As the work of getting the census will be completed by Saturday night, it is probable that the meeting will be called for the first of next week.

Dr. Wilcox to Make Address.

Dr. George E. Wilcox of this city will give the welcoming address at the 70th anniversary of the birth of Christ.
